Web Worksheet

The web worksheet can be used a number of different ways (add more circles as needed):

- Place a goal you want to accomplish in the center of the “web”. Fill in all the connecting circles with the steps to accomplish the goal.
- Place a career interest in the center and brainstorm all the related occupations in the other circles.
- Place an idea for a story, research paper or project in the center and fill the circles with information to complete the project.
